

Virginia Cooperative Council

HELP US HONOR VIRGINIA’S OUTSTANDING COOPERATIVE LEADERS!

The Virginia Cooperative Council (VCC) welcomes nominations for the following two awards:

Cooperative Leadership Award: Established in 1976, this award recognizes co-op educators, co-op employees and employees of cooperative organizations who have consistently worked throughout their careers to further the success of cooperatives in Virginia and whose career contributions at the local, state or national level are worthy of statewide acclaim.

Young Cooperator Leadership Award: established in 1985 as the Young Farmer Award, this award recognizes Virginians under age 40 years at the time of nomination who are actively engaged in the cooperative business model and belong to one or more Virginia cooperatives. Winners receive a $500 gift card to the cooperative of their choice.
